Lake Future Remains Murky

What will happen to Buffalo Lake?

Officials are pondering the future of Buffalo Lake, a serene body of water which for many years had been a drawing card for Panhandle fishermen. Today the water is so polluted many carp are dying. Carcasses of dead fish, above, rim the shoreline.

BY CARROLL WILSON

Will area fishermen ever set another line for game fish in Buffalo Lake? Will the lake ever again be attractive to skiers and boaters? Or will Buffalo Lake become the exclusive home of carp and seasonal water fowl?

The scenic lake, 15 miles west of Canyon, was once the scene of swimming children and speeding water skiers, lone anglers casting for bass.

Now, government officials admit, the lake is so polluted even carp are dying.

What will become of Buffalo Lake, its shores now littered with the carcasses of dead fish, its stench repugnant to any visitor?

The future, at present, is unknown.

Officials from the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife met with lake refuge officials Tuesday and that was their initial conclusion.

Following an hours-long meeting, the officials emerged and told the press they are considering three alternatives.

"One," said Victor W. Kay, associate supervisor for the bureau, "is to leave the situation as is. This would not result in the desired level of fishing the state and federal levels would like to see."

The second alternative would be to once again apply a treatment to the lake, killing off the non-game fish and then restocking.

"This won't improve the quality of the water regardless," Kay said.

The third alternative is to complete a draw down or partial draw down of the lake, removing the carp and hope for rain.

The decision as to what will be done about the lake is balanced between the lake's dual purpose to serve the area with water recreation and to provide a haven for water fowl.

Any alternative chosen, Kay said, must not interfere with this balance.

After more meetings, the officials will release their decision to the public.

The basic problem at Buffalo Lake, they agreed, is the quality of the water.

It's a problem which has been multiplied over the years, Kay said, and is not really the result of negligence on the part of any person or agency.

Bob Bradshaw, Texas Water Quality Board biologist of Amarillo, said in the past "the sources of water for the lake have not been of the best quality."

"Then in the past 2 1/2 years, it has been brought to the point where the exceptionally bad water has been cut off."

Bradshaw said the three major pollutants of the lake were the cattle feed yards (See LAKE, Page 7)

Counters To Begin April 1

Almost 50 enumerators will begin knocking on doors in Randall County April 1 to take this decade's census.

For about 80 percent of the county residents this will mean simply returning a pre-mailed form to the census taker.

But, for about 20 percent of the population the pre-mailed questionnaire will be just the beginning.

The Bureau of the Census opens its Amarillo office today in preparation for the April 1 starting date for the official head count.

Forty seven enumerators have been assigned the task of taking the count in the county.

J. T. Broadaway, regional technician with the census bureau, said a short questionnaire will be sent county residents about two weeks prior to April 1. Thus when an enumerator comes to a particular home, in 80 percent of the cases he will (See CENSUS, Page 7)

Canyon's Belle To Be Named

"Miss Canyon" will be selected in the city's first beauty pageant at 7:30 p.m. Saturday in the Canyon High School auditorium.

Competition includes 37 beauties who have signed with sponsorship fees with the Canyon Study Club.

The pageant will be open to the public at an admission of $1 for adults and 50 cents for students.

The winner of the beauty pageant will receive the right to represent Canyon in other area beauty pageants and several personal prizes including fashions from De'ons and savings bonds from both the West Texas State Bank and First National Bank.

Roy McCoy of KFDA-

TV will serve as master of ceremonies for the pageant and Canyon's Mayor Paul Lindsey will present the winner with her trophy, crown and a bouquet of roses Saturday evening. The first place runnerup will be presented with a bouquet and a trophy and the second, third and fourth place runnersup will be recognized at the pageant.

Contestants have in the past two weeks appeared on the KGNC-TV Farm and Home Show.

A pre-pageant contestant party will be held from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. Saturday afternoon in the First National Bank community room, where contestants will meet informally with the pageant judges.

Beauty pageant judging will be strictly on personality and beauty and contestants in the pageant will wear party dresses. The revue will be staged in a garden setting and will include an intermission break featuring a spring fashion look from De'ons as additional entertainment.

Girls To Try Clear Creek; Boys Will Meet Lamesa

Canyon basketball fans will be caught on the short horns of a dilemma Friday night as they decide whether to journey to Austin or Lubbock to watch the Eagles play basketball.

The girl Eagles will be in Austin meeting Clear Creek in the first round of the state tournament while the boys journey to Lubbock to face Lamesa in the regional tournament.

Coach Bob Schneider's girl Eagles will meet Clear Creek at 7 p.m., with Tulosa Midway of Corpus Christi meeting Rockdale at 8:30 p.m. The winners of the Friday contests will play for the entire ball of wax at 7 p.m. Saturday in the Gregory Gymnasium.

"I haven't had a chance to scout Clear Creek," Schneider said. "Tulosa Midway is there for the second time. They had a 34-0 record last year when we beat them in the finals and they have a 37-0 record this year."

The coach said the finals will "bring together the four best teams in the State of Texas and we will just have to play real good ball to win."

Coach B.B. Kendrick's cagers will tangle with Lamesa at 8:30 p.m. Friday, with Wichita Falls Hershey meeting Ft. Stockton at 7 p.m. The winners of the two contests will meet at 4 p.m. Saturday for the regional tournament championship.

"I think Lamesa is the class of the tournament," Kendrick said. "They beat us by 40 points earlier in the season during the Andrews Tournament."

The coach said the Eagles would have to "run with the ball and be more deliberate with our offense."

"They are a real big team," Kendrick said. "We are going to have to take the percentage shots."

Helium Center Could Move To WT Campus

West Texas State University could become the helium research center of the Panhandle if plans now underway materialize.

With the announcement last week of the shutdown of the Helium Research Center in Amarillo, civic leaders are recommending at least a portion of the center's activities be relocated on the Canyon campus.

Dr. Emmitt Smith, WTSU vice president for research and program development, met with U. S. Rep. Bob Price of Pampa and Amarillo Mayor J. Ernest Stroud last week to discuss such an idea.

Price left Amarillo vowing he will set up an appointment with officials from the Department of the Interior to present the proposal.

The department announced last week it will close out the Helium Activity Center in Amarillo by July 1. More than 60 persons are involved in research projects at the center.

A relocation of the helium research projects from the Amarillo activity to West Texas State's campus was recommended by the Committee of '67 last year.

Dr. Smith said such a recommendation has been under study and consideration about two years.

"However, the announcement that the activity was to be shut down as it now exists by July 1 actually caused a revival of interest in the idea," he said.

Dr. Smith said last year he traveled to Washington and while there outlined in detail the university's proposal to move the helium research center to the campus.

So, he said, during last week's meeting with Price and Stroud, he reviewed the prior proposal in light of the recent announcement.

He said the announcement spurred some changes in the proposal.

"For example, in the original proposal the government would establish the research center on the campus and we would work out the administrative effort to work cooperatively in conjunction with our physical science instructors," he said. "But, this time, the government would assist in an orderly transfer of the research program to West Texas."

Dr. Smith said if the proposal is accepted such a transfer could take three to five years to complete.

He said he is sure the (See HELIUM, Page 7)

School Could Begin Free City Kindergarten

Canyon will have a free public kindergarten beginning next fall if there are children here to attend.

Superintendent of Canyon Schools Jerry Jacobs said the last state legislature passed a law requiring operation of a public kindergarten.

"The state law requires that we have to operate kindergarten if there are any children in our school district who meet the requirements and if their parents want them to be in kindergarten," Jacobs said.

Cathy Gerald, 20, WT sophomore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Gerald, sponsored by Weyman E. Brown, CLU.

Jan Westfall, 17, CHS junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Westfall, sponsored by Eddie's New and Used Cars.

Debra Schrib, 16, CHS junior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Schrib, sponsored by Canyon Glass and Trim.

Cynthia Byars, 17, CHS

The requirements are: Students must be between the ages of 5 years and 5 months and 5 years on Sept. 1, and;

Students may be educationally handicapped or;

Students may be from a family which has an annual income of less than $3,000.

The kindergarten will be free to students meeting the requirements.

Jacobs said the establishment of such a kindergarten next fall is just the first step in the law's provisions.

"Somewhere in 1975 or 1976 there will be mandatory kindergarten," he said. "Attendance won't be compulsory, but anybody will be able to qualify to attend."

State funds will be used to operate the kindergarten.

Jacobs said a survey will be taken, probably beginning in May, to establish how many families who meet the law's requirements live in Canyon and how many would want to send children to the kindergarten.

Jacobs said an educationally handicapped child could be a child who has grown up in a home where English is not the primary spoken language.

The kindergarten, if one is needed, will probably be set up at Rex Reeves Elementary School, he said, and will operate much the same as other kindergartens.

The school district will supply teachers and supplies for the kindergarten.

Partially in preparation for next fall's possible kindergarten, but primarily to aid West Texas State University, a small laboratory kindergarten will be established at Rex Reeves School this summer.

The kindergarten will be from July 13 to Aug. 14.

"Its purpose is so West Texas State can have a kindergarten for students taking courses to become qualified kindergarten teachers," Jacobs said.

The summer kindergarten will give these students a chance to observe and work (See SCHOOL, Page 7)

A Philadelphia minister, complete with sideburns and a positive conviction that you should enjoy religion, made a successful Monday night opening of the 23rd Annual Willson Lecture Series at West Texas State University.

The Rev. Robert A. Raines, pastor of the First United Methodist Church in Germantown, Pa., told the small audience in the Student Union ballroom "I have come not so much to lecture but with ideas and experiences I would like to share."

"Whatever happened to that old-time religion?" he said. "When believers believed in making a joyous noise unto the Lord."

The Rev. Raines said the old camp meetings and revivals were "short on theology and social responsibility but long on power, 'Spiritpower' that cause the people to pray, sing, dance, laugh and cry."

Answering his own question, the minister said "the old-time religion is dead and gone."

"We have frozen the spirit out of Sunday morning worship," he said. "We are God's frozen people. We are God's uptight, frozen people."

The Rev. Raines, who graduated cum laude from the Yale University Divinity School, said young people (See RELIGIOUS, Page 7)

FROM THE

CANYON RIM

If Amarillo, Canyon and the Panhandle is to develop as it should it is high time that we all begin thinking of the Panhandle as a unit and quit riding off in five directions at once.

It may be popular to sit in Canyon, Hereford, Dumas, Dalhart or Tulsa and cuss Amarillo but it's not profitable.

Amarillo leaders can be paternalistic and condescending toward smaller communities but it will be to their detriment and I doubt that they or any of us can afford the luxury.

The Panhandle sits on top of natural resources so vast as to put almost any industry within its economic grasp.

These industries have not materialized to a great extent because no concentrated effort has been made to go after them.

There's a feeling of jealousy among the communities of the Panhandle and it is true that to some extent this feeling has been generated by Amarillo.

Amarillo, through its leadership and often its media, exudes a sense of competing with its satellite communities instead of building them.

The other communities of the Panhandle are not guiltless and I include Canyon. I came here 10 years ago to find a lot of Canyon citizens fighting Loop 335.

Loop 335 will help Amarillo but it will help Canyon a lot more. It will enhance the Canyon tourist trade immensely and this is one of our best selling points. The Panhandle—especially Canyon—enjoys many benefits because of Amarillo. Foresight by the people of Amarillo has made some of the best medical facilities in the nation available to the area.

This has, of course, benefited Amarillo economically but it should be a source of great comfort to every parent to know that if one of his babies becomes desperately ill that these facilities are available within a matter of minutes.

Canyon enjoys a Kids Inc., program largely because of its proximity to its neighbor to the north.

There are sources of irritation between the two communities.

Canyon doesn't think it is getting a fair shake on its dump ground problem. The county has used the Canyon city dump for decades and now seems reluctant to help Canyon solve its dump ground problem brought on to some extent by a new state law which forbids burning of trash.

The city must now bury the trash in land fills. The dump is used about as much by South Amarillo as it is by Canyon and I think the city of Canyon rightly expects some help in solving the problem.

The question has been submitted to the regional planning commission and I am waiting to see what is decided.

The city of Amarillo wanted Canyon to cooperate in a drug control program. Instead of inviting Canyon officials in on the planning, the plans were laid and then Canyon was notified what its cost would be.

Canyon refused to participate and I think rightly so in view of the circumstances. Perhaps it might be well for both cities to back up and start over on the thing since it is recognized that a problem exists in both communities.

The drug problem is especially a mutual one since West Texas State is located in Canyon and has more than 3,000 students who commute from Amarillo.

Canyon merchants compete with Amarillo merchants and this is as it should be. But we're not going to generate more business for Canyon by bad mouthing Amarillo. In the long run it's going to hurt business here because a lot of people who work in Amarillo live and shop in Canyon so anything that stunts the growth of Amarillo also stunts Canyon.

Most of our mutual problems like the drug investigation problem and the city dump problem can be worked out by fair, intelligent men willing to sit down and talk about them.

Because of past bickering the Panhandle has failed to develop either economic or political muscle as it should have.

The Panhandle has no Preston Smith or George H. Mahon to fight its battles in Austin or Washington.

And we're not going to get them as long as we fuss over such trivia as Loop 335, the city dump, an undercover narcotics agent and whether we should play basketball at the fieldhouse or in the civic center.

Isn't it about time for us to start trying to solve these problems like people who are remotely interested in the future of our area?

Amarillo Man Is Charged

A 19-year-old Amarillo man joined two of his brothers on the wrong side of the law Monday when he was arraigned before Randall County Justice of the Peace W.A. "Bill" Wilson, charged with breaking and entering.

Vernon Russell, 19, of 203 N. Arthur heard his bond set at $1,500 for his alleged participation in the Feb. 5, 1969 burglary of the Cooper-Woodruff Construction Co., 1.5 miles South of Pullman Switch.

Vernon and his brother Charles, 26, were arrested in Dallas last month after a stabbing incident which resulted in Vernon being charged with assault with intent to murder.

The Randall County District Attorney's office was checking on the status of the assault case late Monday. Charles is currently being held in Armstrong County jail charged with burglary of the Atlas Portable Building manufacturing site at Washburn last month.

Our World

BY ANN BROWN

Anarchists, both foreign and domestic, have been granted so much license the past 20 years that they now appear to be gaining control of almost every situation.

There was a time when capital crimes merited capital punishment. Now if any capital punishment is meted out, it is likely to be the authorities, and perhaps their families, who die—not the criminals.

Judge Julius J. Hoffman of Chicago had the courage to do what other judges should have done years ago: He sentenced the impudent lawyers, who made a mockery of law and order in his courtroom, to prison along with their savage

Guitarist's Concert Set

The Canyon Community Concerts Association will present Rey de la Torre, classic guitarist, in concert Thursday evening, March 12.

The concert will be at the auditorium of Canyon High School at 8 p.m. and admittance is by membership in the Canyon CCA or other area CCA memberships.

clients. He merely enforced the law against contempt of court.

Certainly, every man is entitled to legal representation in court, but the guilty are not entitled to be set free. It is the legal profession's total disregard for justice, and their determination to free their clients regardless of the vicious crimes they have committed, that is turning our civilization into a jungle. The anarchists have the upper hand and they are determined to keep it.

Judge Hoffman's blow for justice brought threats against his own life (he is under 24-hour guard by the FBI) and set off repercussions as far away as San Francisco and Seattle.

Police battled about 1000 demonstrators who hurled rocks, tear gas, and a hand grenade through the windows of the federal courthouse in Seattle. After the mob was dispersed, the hoodlums took a window-smashing foray through the financial district.

A wave of bombing and sniping terrorized the Bay area of northern California. Several policemen were injured, one fatally.

In Ft. Bragg, N.C., a narcotics specialist was wounded, and his wife and two daughters were slain, by a gang who burst into the victims' home in the dead of night.

Recently a district attorney, who dared crack down on the local dope pushers, was blown apart when he stepped into his boobytrapped car.

Our government is currently planning recognition of the Red Chinese, although their hands are dripping blood from the slaughter of millions of their own people, and the rape of Tibet.

The communists can murder millions of innocent men, women, and children through indescribable torture, and not a peep of protest from our doves and peaceniks. But when a judge attempts to keep order in his own courtroom, they go berserk.

Americans are in the throes of another civil war. Shall we submit to mob rule? Would not the law of the jungle be preferable? At least that would result in the survival of the fittest. Mob rule will lead to the survival of the unfittest, resulting in the total destruction of our great nation.

Government by street carnival has already created some of the most ridiculous policies ever foisted on a "free" people. The original laws of this Republic permitted only taxpayers to vote and make laws. Now taxpayers have almost nothing to say about the levying or spending of their tax money. And taxation without representation never has been overly popular with Americans.

How much voice do the parents who pay the taxes and provide the pupils for our public schools have in the administration of them? Poor parents are even denied a choice of the schools their children attend.

Our oppressive tax structure, crippling foreign policies, losing wars, wasteful welfare, and destructive educational programs were not determined by rational voters but by mob psychology.

Shall Americans bow to the dictates of howling, rock-throwing, power-crazed mobs? The fact that the Supreme Court will probably over rule his verdict does not alter the fact that Judge Hoffman stood up for law and order at the risk of his own life. This is the spirit that built America. How many Americans are willing to do likewise?

DURWOOD HENDERSON explained the functions and speed of the computers in the Computer Center of the Killgore Research Center Monday afternoon to about 25 members of the Sue Hite Club of Canyon as the group toured the building and watched the computers in action.

Sue Hite Club Meets Monday, Tours Computer Site

Canyon's Sue Hite Club the Huelyn Laycock home met Monday afternoon at for business and refreshments and then toured the computer center at West Texas State University.

About 35 attended. Co-hostesses for the first segment of the meeting were Mrs. Wendell Cain and Mrs. R. C. Busted.

In a formal military candlelight church service February 7, Miss Jo Lynn Dutton of LaJunta, Colorado became the bride of Lt. John V. Peters of Clovis, New Mexico. The ceremony was performed at the First Church of God in LaJunta with Rev. Kenneth Smatlak, pastor of the church, officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Jo Carroll Dutton of LaJunta and Mr. and Mrs. J.D. Peters of Clovis, New Mexico.

The church decor featured greenery, yellow roses and candles and the baskets and candelabra were tied with yellow and white bows and wedding bells.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father and was given in marriage by her parents. She wore a gown of stark white snowflake peau de soie with bridal lace overlaying the bodice and forming an inset on the scalloped skirt front. Rows of gathered lace fell from the inset. The scalloped neckline was re-embroidered with iridescent sequins and seed pearls and the long fitted sleeves came to a point over the bride's hands.

A chapel length double lace train edged in Chantilly lace extended from the shoulders where it was secured with delicate lace bows. Her seed pearl tiara held a fingertip illusion veil which was edged in wide Chantilly lace. The bridal bouquet was centered with a white cattilya orchid and cascading from that were white roses, ivy, and white tulle. She carried two long stemmed roses which she presented to her mother and the bridegroom's mother. She had the traditional blue garter, a sixpence in one shoe and a penny of her birthdate in the other. Her dress and veil were borrowed from a cousin.

Attending her sister as maid of honor was Miss Beth Dutton. Bridesmaids were Miss Jan Peters of Clovis, New Mexico, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Annie Young of LaJunta.

The attendants were dressed identically in fashions by the bride's mother. The gowns were of antique gold satin brocade with empire waist styling, and long Juliet sleeves made of gold sheer. Fashioned full in the back, the gowns were floor length and formed short trains in the back. Their hats were head circlets of gold reembroidered with iridescent sequins and gold tulle veils reaching shoulder length. They carried long stemmed yellow roses and wore gold choker necklaces with crystal heart, a gift of the bride.

Best man was Kit Stewart of Lubbock. Groomsmen were Mike Dutton, brother of the bride, and Lt. Bill Taylor, who attended the US Military Academy at West Point, New York with the bridegroom.

Candlelighters and ushers were also West Point friends of the bridegroom including Lt. Mike Kryzewski, Lt. Tony Springer, Lt. Walter Ballenger and Lt. Tom Venard.

David and Donald Dutton, cousins of the bride unrolled the white aisle cloth for the bride to walk down. Flower girl was Betty Jean Smatlak. She wore a floor-length gown of gold brocade fashioned after the bridesmaids and carried a white basket filled with white rose petals.

Carrying the bridegroom's ring on a gold and white lace heart-shaped pillow was Danny Smatlak. Mitchell Yergert carried the bride's ring on a white lace heart-shaped pillow.

Organist for the ceremony was Mrs. Claude Brown. At the beginning of the ceremony the Rev. Wallace Jantz sang "Because". As the bride entered at the back of the church Marilyn Smatlak sang "God Gave Me You" and as the couple bowed their heads together Marilyn Smatlak sang "The Wedding Prayer". At the close of the ceremony the couple lighted the white memory candle and then the bride couple and attendants signed the marriage license. As the recessional march began the ushers formed the Arch of the Sabres as the couple passed under them.

A reception followed in the church fellowship hall where the table was covered with a gold cloth and overlay of gold net with front draped with brocade and tied at the corners with white bows and wedding bells. The bride's tier of the wedding cake was placed on a silver cake stand between two silver candleholders with a flower arrangement of white chrysanthemums, stock and yellow roses at the base of the stand. The bride and bridegroom cut the cake with his own gold and silver sabre.

During the reception the best man gave a toast to the new couple as they drank from crystal goblets, a gift of the bride's parents. At the punch bowl for the reception were Sharon Yergert and Linda Rizzuto. Serving the cake was an aunt of the bridegroom, Doretha Harden and Martha Stewart. Others assisting at the reception were the bride's aunt, Jerry Dutton, and friends Melva Lee Acheson, Gladys Bay, Ikey Harrington and Rhonda Hinderliter.

At the gift table were the bride's friends, Patsy Miller, Kathy Fawcett and Sudi White. Giving out the gold and white rice bags were Connie Neal and Debbie Engle. Seated at the guest book were Coy Stewart of Lubbock and Suzi Cosand.

Seated at the special "Grandparent" table during the reception were the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Modena Barker of Canyon, and the bridegroom's grandparents, Mrs. J.D. Peters of Carnegie, Oklahoma and Rev. and Mrs. Veron Miller of Clovis.

The bride is a senior at LaJunta High School and will graduate in May. She has held numerous club offices and been involved in school activities.

The bridegroom graduated from Clovis High School and from the United States Military Academy of West Point, New York.

At home in LaJunta, Colorado, the couple will leave after June 1 for an 18 month tour of duty with the United States Army in Germany. The bride plans to enroll in college there.

Former residents of Canyon, the bride is a niece of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Simon and Mr. and Mrs. Bill Crow of Canyon. Her grandmother, Mrs. Barker, also resides here.

New Camaro. Feb. 26th.

We've never announced a car at this time before.
But then nobody's ever announced a car like this before.

Super Hugger

If it were an ordinary sportster, we'd have introduced it at the ordinary time.

Instead, we took the time to build a whole new Camaro.

We started with a sleek new shape and a low road-hugging stance.

And added more hood. A faster fastback. Wider doors. And new deeply contoured bucket seats.

The instrument panel wraps around you. With enough dials to make you think you're piloting a 747.

There are four transmissions. And six power plants up to the Turbo-Jet 396 V8 that you can order.

Pick the one that best suits your driving. Then go pick on an open road.

And make it one with plenty of twisting turns. Because Camaro has a remarkable new suspension. And standard front disc brakes for a leech-like grip on the road.

New Camaro. The Super Hugger.

Other sportsters always feared it might come to this.

And they were right. Only their timing was wrong.

Putting you first, keeps us first.

are not "turned on by revivals and altar calls and we have to admit that sometimes we aren't either."
"What scares us sometimes is that nothing turns us on anymore," he said. "I think today when people come to church, and there is not as many as there were, they come hoping to be touched by a spiritual energy or urgency."
The minister said that there is "a new-time religion coming that will enable us to feel the power every time we pray."
"Many people can't feel the Spirit of God moving in the church," he said. "Many people who are turned off by the conventional church still ask religious questions."
Speaking of young people, Rev. Raines said "they want to study and explore but they don't buy the church institution as they know it."
The minister said the recent Woodstock Festival in New York, when thousands of young people lived in close harmony and understanding, proved that "the Spirit of God is not locked up in church and God doesn't work through channels."
Rev. Raines said the new-time religion will "enable us to feel the power of Christ's resurrection and will give us a new song to sing."
"Religion can live without an answer," he said. "But it cannot live without a song."
The minister said that "if you listen you can hear the new religion coming in the songs young people are singing."
"For young people I don't just collect the short form. Broadway said the short form takes about 15 minutes to fill out. He said it is primarily concerned with the family, ages, sexes and educational levels of each family member.

"There are a few housing questions," he said, "so we can come up with the quality of housing."
At random, the bureau has already chosen the 20 percent of the county's residents who will fill out a longer form for the census.
Instead of sending out the long form, though, the census enumerator will ask additional questions—other than those listed on the short form—of specific residents when he calls on them.
"The long form goes into detail on housing, primarily," Broadway said. "It also goes into income and working patterns."
According to a national magazine's recent story, the more detailed questions will involve what kind of heating system you have, whether you own washing machines or television sets and how many times each member of the household has been married.
Broadway said census taking at West Texas State University dormitories poses a unique problem for the bureau.
He said no forms will be sent out before hand to students living in dorms. They will be contacted and asked questions in person. Some of the students will be chosen to fill out the long form, but their long form will be shorter than county residents' long forms.
Broadway said no questions concerning housing will be asked.
The students living in dorms will be enumerated as part of Canyon's population. Broadway said he hopes to have the 18th Congressional District covered and counted by May 8.
More than 450 enumerators will work throughout the district for the bureau.

Cloyce Box of Dallas, a former Miller-coached athlete and chairman of West Texas State's board of regents, will present Miller with a plaque during half-time ceremonies.
Miller, in turn, will present the Borden Price Award to a worthy physical education major.
In Utah State the Buffaloes will be facing a team which handed them a 112-87 defeat earlier this year. That 25-point decision is the worst loss suffered by the Buffs this season.
The Aggies are paced by 6-8 Marvin Roberts and 6-5 Nate Williams. Roberts, a junior, is scoring 21.4 points per game and pulling in 13.8 rebounds per outing.
Williams, a sophomore, hit 40 points in the first West Texas-Utah State game. He is scoring 21.7 points per game and claiming 9.3 rebounds.
Other starters are 6-8 Tim Tollestrup, 6-3 Paul around Hereford, the vegetable packing houses near Hereford and the City of Hereford's sewage disposal plant.

Right now, he said, no water is coming into the lake from any source. Even so, improvements have been made in the vegetable packing plants, feed yards and the Hereford sewage plant and Bradshaw says he foresees much cleaner water entering the lake in the future.
"The sources of the pollution are being controlled," he said.
Kay said the pollution actually began the day the gates were closed to the Buffalo Lake dam.
"It's a prime example of what man can do, unintentionally, to his environment," he said.
Kay said the problem at Buffalo Lake can be solved completely only when the pollution now existing is eliminated and when good water is put back into the lake.
For the fisherman, the immediate future is bleak.
A fish-kill this winter ridded the lake of its remaining game fish.
A random count taken Wednesday morning indicated that all that remain in the lake are carp, carp goldfish, gold fish and black bull heads, according to Jack Crabtree, fisheries biologist.
Kay said he feels the lake must function for fishermen and public enjoyment.
"This is the whole ball of wax," he said.
"If we have any opportunity to offer fishing this is very much a part of our overall objective."

government would not want to carry on with some of the research projects currently in operation at the Amarillo center if the center were moved to Canyon.
"I'm sure their approach will be to select on-going projects of some importance and move them here," he said.
Under the WTSU proposal, the government would contract with West Texas for the research and the helium research would become a part of the university's research program.
A major stumbling block to the entire venture, however, rests on whether the university can acquire enough space to house the research projects.
"There is not sufficient space in the Killgore Research Center right now," Dr. Smith said.
But, Dr. Smith is hopeful.
"I've been invited to speak at their annual meeting on the campus on March 30," he said. "The subject of my talk will be the expansion of research facilities on this campus."
"I am hopeful this group can see the appropriate need and will be able to respond to it."
The foundation has been a moving factor in the recent construction of the Amarillo Medical Center.

Canyon Culture Groups Among Those On Tour

BY LORENA MILLER
(Editor's Note: The following is the second in a four-part series on the High Plains Center for the Performing Arts.)

Four Canyon art groups are among those selected for the first touring season of the High Plains Center for the Performing Arts.

Headquartered in Amarillo, the arts center is designed to serve as a talent bureau and clearance house for all area artists, pianists, drama players, and noted authorities in any given subject field.

Included in the current tour season are the Alliance Francaise which is an outgrowth production of the French Department at West Texas State University providing an evening of French farce and music with English commentary on French culture; paintings by Byron B. Wolfe on loan from the Canyon Art Gallery; a voice recital by Elsa Porter, soprano, which is taken from her 1969-70 faculty recital at West Texas State University; and a piano recital program taken from a recent faculty recital featuring WTSU's Stanley Potter.

The Canyon offerings are among several included in the current season's bookings. Others include the "Spoon River Anthology" by the Horseshoe Players; a western art show from the High Plains Gallery in Amarillo; three separate programs including dance and lecture from the Amarillo Ballet Theatre; and a full concert by the Amarillo Symphony.

As explained by William Moore of the board of directors for the center, the ultimate goal of the center is to have available a full brochure of programs, recitals, etc. which would be booked for appearances at all sizes of cities and towns across the West Texas Panhandle and even in New Mexico and Oklahoma.

"This means that some of our professors who are noted in their subject areas could contact the center and make themselves available to give the programs in their particular research area all over the Panhandle," stated Moore.

"In turn the professors will receive a set 'program fee' for their presentation to interested groups," stated Moore.

Chambers of Commerce, civic clubs, women's clubs and other organizations could contact the center for program selections in their interest area. Communities might like to sponsor a performance of the symphony as a grand scale production for their city, or sponsor a week's exhibit of some renowned artist, according to Moore.

"We have to make this whole area 'area conscious'—they need to realize the benefits their community will derive from the center," stated Moore.

Organizations in each city who make arrangements for a program from the center would set their own ticket prices, manage the sale of tickets, and after deducting the set fee for the program would reap the profits of their efforts.

This season's available programs may be arranged for by contacting the center, 373-7052.

Teacher's Articles Accepted For Several Publications

Jean Galloway, typing and shorthand teacher for Canyon High School, has had three articles and a poem accepted for publication recently.

"The Problem Is Me" appeared in the February 1970 issue of 'Faith At Work' and deals with that it is always easy to blame others for our miserable lot in life until we discover that the problem lies within ourselves.

"Home Life" magazine has accepted the article "Is There Still Time?" last August but as yet has not printed the article which takes an honest look at the emotional turmoil which a divorced person faces the first year after the divorce occurs. In the article, Mrs. Galloway states that a person should take all available steps to prevent the actual divorce such as counseling, thinking of the effects on the children, allowing room for partner faults, reading the Bible and discussing divorce and marriage.

Publication is pending for an article accepted in January 1970 by 'Business Education World' magazine. The article relates that there are no film loops available for business classes like typing and shorthand and challenges teachers to make their own films in the classroom.

The National Poetry Press has accepted an untitled Buses Available To Take Students To Ball Game

Two buses will be available tonight to carry West Texas State University students to the Buffalo-Utah State basketball game in Amarillo.

The buses will leave the Student Union Building at 7 p.m. They will carry students at no charge. They are sponsored by the student activities council.

When the buses leave the SUB at 7 p.m., they will stop at six dormitories—Brown, Cousins, Shirley, Jarrett, Stafford and Guenther.

News Brief

Peter L. Petersen of the history department at West Texas State University will present a talk "student unrest and rebellion" tonight, Thursday, at 7:30 o'clock in the Lutheran Student Center, 2600 4th Avenue.

The program is the fourth in a series of student forums and is open to the public.

Extension Requested By Springer To Finish Comprehensive Plan

Marvin Springer of Dallas was in Canyon Monday to have papers signed requesting a time extension for the comprehensive city plan he and the City of Canyon have been discussing for nearly four years.

The federal contract, which pays two-thirds of the cost of the plan expired February 8, although the contract the city signed with Springer does not expire until June 24.

Springer met with City Manager Howard Northcutt Tuesday to lay the groundwork for several local meetings, at which time he will explain the portion of the plan that has already been concluded.

Because Mayor Paul Lindsey was out of town Tuesday, the time extension request will be presented to him for signature at the city council meeting March 5. A meeting between Springer and the Canyon Planning and Zoning Commission will be set as soon as possible.

The city planner said the main delay in completing the comprehensive plan is the fact no positive route selection has been made for the extension of Interstate-27 around Canyon.

Springer said the portions of the comprehensive study that are complete, and many of which have been implemented by the city, are the land use plan, the thoroughfare plan (except for I-27) the central area plan, the subdivision plan, administration of the plan and the housing plan.

Speaking of the delay in completing the study, Springer said "things have moved a little slow but this is typical."

"The funds are deposited by the City of Canyon and the federal government but they are administered by the State of Texas," he said. "You have to deal with third and fourth parties to the transaction and it is time consuming."

The City of Canyon has

Nine More Ink Pacts With Buffs

Nine more high school football players have signed to scholarship agreements at West Texas State University, it has been announced.

Four of the signees are from Lubbock—two from Dunbar and two from Estacado.

Three of the signees were from the Panhandle and two from downstate.

Those signing from Lubbock were Ronald Kinnard, 6-0, 193-pound running back and punter, and Clarence Ervin, 6-2, 215-pound center. Both are from Dunbar. Ervin was an all-district, all-city center.

Robert Hines and Walter Hibbler are two tackles from Estacado. Hines is 6-0 and 210 pounds and Hibbler is 6-0, 205 pounds.

Also signing with the Buffaloes were Joe Dempsey, 6-4, 200-pound tackle from Happy, Danny Prince, 6-1, 170-pound safety from Farwell and Gary Davis, 6-3, 200-pound all-district tackle from Wheeler.

Jackie Meredith of Belton and Eddie Cox of Galena Park also signed. Meredith is a punter and Cox, a 6-5, 245-pound tackle. Cox won all-city, all-district and all-area honors in high school.

WT Lecturer

Set Thursday

A series of guest lectures on conservation are being presented at West Texas State University in a Thursday night geography 221 class, according to Charles Nelson, assistant professor of geography in charge of the programs.

Open to the public, the lectures are held in the Education Building, room 303, at 7 p.m., Nelson adds. The first presentation was made last Thursday by Frank Ranier, Lubbock executive secretary of High Plains Underground Water Conservation, District I.

John O'Connor of the Canyon Soil Conservation Service will be guest lecturer this Thursday for the class.

paid a total of $2,775 for its portion of the cost of the study and will pay an additional $1,382 when the plan is 70 per cent completed.

of the freeway was "quite important" in determining the availability of industrial location sites, access and land use.

The two major factors in the structure of a community are transportation and open space," he said.

Springer said he would meet with Charles W. "Chili" Smith Tuesday to see if any further information could be obtained concerning location of the freeway. Smith is the district engineer of District 4 of the Texas Highway Department.

"A large portion of the plan is already finished and implemented," Springer said. "The only two facets which have not been discussed with previous planning and zoning commissions are school sites in relation to parks and playgrounds and a proposed future fire station if needed for Canyon."

The city planner said that to his knowledge no city requesting an extension has been turned down, but that should it happen federal funds would be dropped only for that period from February 8 to June 24.

Candidates Pie Supper Set Tuesday

Randall County Farmers Union will host a candidate pie supper Tuesday evening, March 3, at the Randall County Junior Livestock Barn.

Bob Lindsey of the organization said all candidates on the state, district and county level will be asked to attend and will be given the opportunity to speak.

He said coffee and pie will be served free of charge to local and county residents. The pies will be baked by wives of Farmers Union members. Pies left will be auctioned at the close of the meeting.

Lindsey reported this week that two Republican candidates and six Democratic candidates have confirmed their wish to attend. No candidates for Canyon's mayor or city commission will be asked to speak at the supper. The organization may sponsor another pie supper following the May primaries.

Farmers Host White's Visit

The James Lambs of Amarillo are being hosts this week to a member of the Kansas Farmers Union, Wilbur White, while he is here taking part in a membership drive in connection with the 1970 Farmers Union Flying Membership Campaign.

Dean Schaeffer, president of the Randall County Farmers Union, commended the Lambs for their part in the membership campaign and stressed that "the drive is only a means to an end and that the campaign is one in a series designed to develop grassroots support for the Federal farm programs."

Art Award Honors Gained By Contest

Several Canyon High School art students have received gold keys and honor awards in the Scholastic Art Awards contest held by White and Kirk in Amarillo.

About 400 art works by students from a number of Panhandle Counties are on display through March 7 at White and Kirk's downtown store in Amarillo.

Pontiac announces the beginning of tomorrow.

The all-new Firebirds are here.

There are four. Why?

People have different ideas of what a sports car should be. Incorporating all of those ideas into one car is equivalent to putting an elephant's trunk, a camel's hump and stripes on a giraffe. You end up with a creature that doesn't do anything well.

So... four Firebirds.

Firebird (1). An economical sports car.

Firebird Esprit (2). A luxurious model.

Firebird Formula 400 (3). The Firebird built for drivers.

Firebird Trans Am (4). Our ultimate.

Four distinctly different Firebirds for drivers who agree on only one thing. A sports car.

Comfortable seating for four. Period.

Three have always been a crowd. Especially in the back seat of a sports car. So the new Firebirds have two bucket-type seats in back. Plus two bucket seats up front.

Four comfortable passengers, each in an individual seat.

And a more comfortable ride.

The rear seats gave us room to raise the drive tunnel between them. Which gives the suspension room to travel when you hit a bump. Which, in the Firebird and Esprit, produces a ride that many a full-size sedan would be proud of.

Formula 400 and Trans Am don't have it quite as soft. Enthusiasts like a stiffer ride. Stiffer springs and shocks provide it.

A ride is nothing without quick handling.

We didn't compromise handling a bit. We made the Wide-Track wider. Made fade-resistant front disc brakes standard. And for improved cornering, we installed stabilizer bars up front. And added rear stabilizer bars to Formula 400 and Trans Am.

Engines to match.

If you read our descriptions of the four Firebirds, the engine lineup makes supreme sense. The basic Firebird has a 250-cubic-inch six. Esprit—a 350-cubic-inch, regular-gas V-8. Formula 400 has a 400-cubic-inch V-8. And Trans Am features a 400-cubic-inch Ram Air V-8.

Endura bumpers that absorb bumps. Pontiac's Endura material is probably the best thing to happen to bumpers since bumpers. It's a resilient, rubber-like material that looks like painted metal. It resists dings, dents and chips. And it positively won't rust.

A tough bumper. Covering the entire front end of each Firebird. The decisive victory of functionalism over faddism.

Instrument panels, for instance. Easy to read. With easy-to-reach controls. We even designed the panels so that any light bulb can be changed in 60 seconds. By you. Without lying on the floor.

But you'll undoubtedly want to find out for yourself. Please do. At a Pontiac dealer's. Then you'll know our "beginning of tomorrow" claim is more than a boast.

New, even for Pontiac.

(We take the fun of driving seriously.)

Open house and school programs are planned for the Canyon Independent School District during Texas Public School Week March 2-6.

Parents are invited and urged to visit the schools during the week to find out first hand what their tax dollars are doing for the education of their children.

This week, Mayor Paul Lindsey signed a proclamation in observance of the week. Jerry Jacobs, school superintendent, is planning chairman for the observance.

Open house activities will be held at each school during the week in addition to specially arranged programs for parents, displays of science fairs at the elementary schools, radio programs and tapes featuring school departments, and in-class visitation urged for parents. At Canyon High School, open house will be held Tuesday evening from 7-9 p.m. March 3. The school will also be visited by the Canyon Rotary Club which will have their regular luncheon meeting at the school that day.

Canyon Junior High School will also have open house Tuesday evening, March 3, from 7-9 p.m. The school will have a special choir program arranged by Gene Murray, choir instructor, where 7th and 8th grade choirs will perform between 7-7:30 p.m. and the ninth grade choirs will perform between 7:40 and 7:55 p.m. In addition parents are invited to visit the school building during the week. While choir programs are in progress other parents will be invited to the classrooms to meet with homeroom instructors.

Mail Deadline Sunday For Tags

March 1 is the deadline for registering motor vehicles by mail with the computerized renewal form and $1 service charge. Mrs. Audrey Bruse, county tax assessor-collector said Wednesday.

Umbarger Elementary School will have their open house Monday evening, March 2, beginning at 8 p.m. with a short musical program by students. Parents will tour the building and visit with teachers.

Gene Howe Elementary School will entertain parents at a Parent-Teacher Association business meeting Monday evening beginning at 7:30 p.m. with a program "Texas Under Six Flags" to be presented by the third grade classes. The school will also have their Science Fair exhibits on display and parents will visit in the school for open house that evening.
